

REVISED
NOTICE OF JUDICIAL VACANCY

Court of Criminal Appeals
Middle Section

Pursuant to the State of Tennessee Executive Order 54 (May 19, 2016), notice is hereby given that the Governor's Council for Judicial Appointments will meet to initiate the process of filling a vacancy in the Middle Section of the Court of Criminal Appeals following the retirement of Judge Thomas T. Woodall effective January 1, 2021.

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, and in accordance with State of Tennessee Executive Order 60 (August 28, 2020), the Council will hold this hearing virtually via video conference using Zoom on Monday, October 26, 2020 beginning at 9:00 a.m. CDT and on Tuesday, October 27, 2020 beginning at 9:00 a.m. CDT. The hearing will be livestreamed for public viewing to: www.youtube.com/user/TNCourts.

Interested individuals may also attend the livestream in the Middle Section at the Administrative Office of the Courts located at 511 Union Street, Suite 600, Nashville 37219 to watch and/or speak in opposition to any applicant. All visitors who want to attend the live stream hearing at the Administrative Office of the Courts must check-in with Nashville City Center building security, provide a valid government-issued ID, and follow all building mandated COVID-19 protocols for admission to the building.

Interested individuals who want to attend the hearing remotely via video conferencing to verbally address the Commission to express their opposition concerning an applicant must contact Ceesha Lofton at the Administrative Office of the Courts either by email at ceesha.lofton@tncourts.gov or by calling 615-741-2687 by 4:00 p.m. CDT on Monday, October 12, 2020 so that the necessary electronic accommodations can be made for participation in the video conference.

This the 14th day of October, 2020.
