

Supreme Court

State of Tennessee

CHAMBERS OF
CHIEF JUSTICE SHARON G. LEE

P.O. BOX 444
505 MAIN STREET
KNOXVILLE, TENNESSEE 37901
—
(865) 594-6707
Justice.Lee@tncourts.gov

October 16, 2015

Welcome to the Alternative Dispute Resolution Commission's 13th Annual ADRC Workshop entitled "Becoming a Master Mediator." This workshop will provide you with the tools you need to be a more effective mediator.

The ever-increasing use of mediation has changed the legal landscape in Tennessee and helped many litigants to solve their problems in a more expeditious, cost-effective, and satisfactory manner. The Commission on Dispute Resolution currently has 1,316 active Rule 31 mediators, and this number continues to rise.

The Supreme Court is very grateful to the Alternative Dispute Resolution Commission for the superior training offered through these workshops, as well as to you for your commitment and dedication to improving your skills.

I appreciate your participation in today's workshop and hope you enjoy the program.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Sharon Lee". The signature is written in a cursive style.

Sharon G. Lee