

NOTICE OF JUDICIAL VACANCY

Criminal Court
20th Judicial District
Davidson County

Pursuant to Tenn. Code Annotated § 17-4-308 (d), notice is hereby given that the Trial Court Vacancy Commission will soon meet in Nashville to initiate the process of filling an upcoming vacancy in the District's Criminal Court. The Honorable Seth Walker Norman has given notice that he will retire effective August 31, 2018.

Any member of the public, either lay or attorney, shall be entitled to attend the public hearing to express, orally or in writing, such citizen's objections to any suggested nominee for the judicial vacancy.

Any interested applicant must be an attorney licensed in Tennessee who is at least 30 years of age, a resident of the state for five years, and must reside in the Judicial District. All interested candidates should submit a completed application (Trial Court Vacancy Commission Application) available on our website, to the Commission for its consideration. Applications should be submitted to the Administrative Office of the Courts by no later than July 23, 2018 at Noon CDT. The Commission encourages all candidates to submit applications as early as possible.

Each candidate must submit by the deadline the original signed (unbound) as well as a digital copy of the application in order to have his/her name placed on the list of candidates for the judicial vacancy for which he/she is applying. Complete application instructions are on our website at www.TNCourts.gov.

The Commission is committed to the goal of a diverse judiciary and encourages all qualified attorneys to apply for any judicial vacancy for consideration without regard to race, ethnicity or gender.

If you require an accommodation and/or have special needs because of a qualified disability, have questions, or need additional information, please contact Debra Hayes at the Administrative Office of the Courts at 615-741-2687.

This the 3rd day of July, 2018.
