INTRODUCTION

Tennessee Code Annotated section 17-4-301 et seq. charges the Trial Court Vacancy Commission with assisting the Governor and the People of Tennessee in finding and appointing the best qualified candidates for judicial offices in this State. Please consider the Commission's responsibility in answering the questions in this application questionnaire. For example, when a question asks you to "describe" certain things, please provide a description that contains relevant information about the subject of the question and, especially, that contains detailed information that demonstrates that you are qualified for the judicial office you seek. In order to properly evaluate your application, the Commission needs information about the range of your experience, the depth and breadth of your legal knowledge, and your personal traits such as integrity, fairness, and work habits.

This document is available in word processing format from the Administrative Office of the Courts (telephone 800.448.7970 or 615.741.2687; website www.tncourts.gov). The Commission requests that applicants obtain the word processing form and respond directly on the form. Respond in the box provided below each question. (The box will expand as you type in the document.) Review the separate instruction sheet prior to completing this document. Submit original (unbound) completed application (with ink signature) to the Administrative Office of the Courts. In addition, submit a digital copy with electronic or scanned signature via email to debra.hayes@tncourts.gov, or via another digital storage device such as flash drive or CD.

THIS APPLICATION IS OPEN TO PUBLIC INSPECTION AFTER YOU SUBMIT IT.

6. Describe the nature of your present law practice, listing the major areas of law in which you practice and the percentage each constitutes of your total practice.

At present, I would estimate that 50-60% of my law practice involves representing lawyers, law firms, and business and individuals who deal with lawyers in matters involving the law of lawyering. That portion of my practice includes:

- Representation of lawyers and law firms in a wide variety of claims and lawsuits;
- Advising lawyers and law firms concerning both general and specific loss prevention issues;
- Representing lawyers in disciplinary proceedings (and some representation of others in the pursuit of disciplinary matters);
- Representation of lawyers licensed in other jurisdictions in proceedings before the Board of Law Examiners, and of law school graduates in connection with bar admission matters;
- Advising lawyers, law firms, and others concerning conflicts of interest;
- Appearances as special counsel in litigation for parties or their counsel of record regarding issues of disqualification, attorney-client privilege and attorney work-product, and judicial recusal;
- Representation of non-lawyers (both entities and individuals) in creating business models to market products or services to lawyers;
- Advising corporations and other organizations concerning issues involving in-house counsel, including deficient licensure and unauthorized practice of law issues;
- Representation of lawyers, law firms, judges, and judicial candidates concerning legal and campaign advertising issues;
- Assisting lawyers, law firms, and others with questions related to providing law-related services and the establishment and operation of ancillary or law-related businesses; and
- Engagement as an expert witness (including both consulting and testifying capacities) to counsel and parties involved in malpractice litigation and other litigation concerning ethics and professional responsibility issues.

In addition to representing lawyers and firms externally, a portion of my time is spent serving as counsel to my own law firm on an as-needed basis on such issues.

The remainder of my law practice is almost entirely focused on representing clients in litigation, including commercial/business litigation matters, appellate litigation (both federal and state matters), some healthcare liability (medical malpractice) matters, and other general litigation.

Around 5% of my practice involves non-litigation matters, not involving legal ethics or professional responsibility issues, and covers contract review, counseling, and public relations and crisis management services.

7. Describe generally your experience (over your entire time as a licensed attorney) in trial courts, appellate courts, administrative bodies, legislative or regulatory bodies, other forums, and/or transactional matters.

I take great professional pride in the abilities I have demonstrated both inside, and outside, the courtroom during my entire career. I believe strongly that every judge before whom I have appeared (if they remembered me) would say that I represented my clients well. I have been fortunate at every firm I have practiced with to have been given opportunities to work on significant litigation matters even in areas I had never before practiced and entrusted to be able to quickly become competent and comfortable with the law involved.

The list of published (or electronically-reported) decisions I have identified in response to the very next question actually are fairly representative of the breadth of my experience in terms of types of litigation and areas of substantive law in which I have been involved over the course of my career.

Those cases run the gamut of both federal and state court litigation, reflect my involvement in traditional litigation and class action matters, and include matters where I was the client's sole lawyer at all times to matters where I worked on the client matter as part of a team of counsel. With respect to the substantive areas of law, those cases involve: administrative law, antitrust law, breach of contract matters, civil rights and constitutional law matters, computer fraud/electronic communications litigation, defamation matters, employment litigation, ERISA litigation, fiduciary duty matters, fraud claims, lawyer disciplinary proceedings, family law matters, health care liability actions (medical malpractice defense), legal malpractice matters, premises liability matters, products liability matters, public records and open meetings matters, Tennessee Consumer Protection Act litigation, and wrongful death litigation.

In addition to such matters, I have also been retained to monitor trials for potential appellate issues and worked behind the scenes on appeals of a broad variety of types. Further, over the years and as the size of my practice representing lawyers and law firms has grown, I have developed the kind of experience that I often refer to as being a "general practitioner by proxy." In order to successfully defend and advise lawyers I have to be able to quickly learn about the area of law they are handling and the type of law practice in which they are engaged. In addition to representing lawyers in matters touching on the same areas of law I have personally handled above, I have represented criminal defense attorneys, immigration lawyers, probate lawyers, prosecutors, real estate closing attorneys, tax lawyers, and lawyers navigating the workers' compensation system.

8. Describe any matters of special note involving your practice in trial courts, appellate courts, and administrative bodies.

Consistent with my statement above regarding the wide array of matters I have litigated during my entire career, the following is a list of publicly-reported (or electronically-published) cases in which I have been counsel of record:

Cross v. City of Memphis, 20 S.W.3d 642 (Tenn. 2000)

9. Describe any other legal experience, not stated above, that you would like to bring to the attention of the Commission.

During my career, I have spoken at hundreds of seminars on issues related to ethics and professional responsibility both in Tennessee and nationally. I have had articles or columns published in a wide variety of sources, and I am the co-author of a book published by the American Bar Association, Professional Responsibility in Litigation, that is in its Second Edition.

I also have served as an expert witness on a number of occasions. Over the last five to seven years, I have provided affidavits/declarations or live testimony as an expert witness in each of the following cases:

In re Estate of James Donald Meadows, Dickson County Probate Court No. 03-16-029-P

Sam Johnson et al. v. Caremark Rx, LLC et al., Jefferson County Alabama Circuit Court No. CV-2003-006630-PJB

3C Investments, LLC v. CHC Nashville CMHC, LLC et al., Davidson County Circuit Court No. 11C2881

10. List and describe all prior occasions on which you have submitted an application for any state or federal judicial position.

I have pursued an interest in being a judge on a few prior occasions, but previously always involving federal positions. Initially, in 2005, I put in an application for a vacant United States Magistrate Judge position in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Tennessee but was not selected. I also applied for a vacant United States Magistrate Judge position in the United States District Court for the Western District of Tennessee. I was interviewed in February 2009 but was not selected. It was the position for which Magistrate Judge Claxton was selected. In 2015, I submitted a letter of interest to Congressman Steve Cohen for the vacancy on the District Court in the Western District of Tennessee. I was interviewed by Congressman

Cohen and his screening committee in January 2015. Ultimately, upon Congressman Cohen's recommendation, President Obama nominated then U.S. Attorney Edward Stanton for the position. In 2016, two Magistrate Judge vacancies existed in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Tennessee, and I again submitted an application but was not selected.

PERSONAL INFORMATION

12. State your date of birth.

October 24, 1973

13. How long have you lived continuously in the State of Tennessee?

Either 26 years or 34 years, as the answer depends on whether a 2 ½ month period that I lived with my family in Virginia between graduating from CBHS and starting at Rhodes College in the summer of 1991 disrupts what would otherwise be a continuous period of residence going back to 5th Grade.

14. How long have you lived continuously in the county where you are now living?

Same answer as above

15. State the county in which you are registered to vote.

Shelby

16. Describe your military service, if applicable, including branch of service, dates of active duty, rank at separation, and decorations, honors, or achievements. Please also state whether you received an honorable discharge and, if not, describe why not.

No such service

17. Have you ever pled guilty or been convicted or are now on diversion for violation of any law, regulation or ordinance other than minor traffic offenses? If so, state the approximate date, charge and disposition of the case.

No

18. To your knowledge, are you now under federal, state or local investigation for possible violation of a criminal statute or disciplinary rule? If so, give details.

No

19. Please identify the number of formal complaints you have responded to that were filed against you with any supervisory authority, including but not limited to a court, a board of professional responsibility, or a board of judicial conduct, alleging any breach of ethics or unprofessional conduct by you. Please provide any relevant details on any such complaint if the complaint was not dismissed by the court or board receiving the complaint.

One. A lawyer I briefly represented in a disciplinary matter filed a disciplinary complaint against me because of my decision to cease representation. The complaint was meritless, and the BPR dismissed it within a matter of just a few days.

20. Has a tax lien or other collection procedure been instituted against you by federal, state, or local authorities or creditors within the last five (5) years? If so, give details.

No

21. Have you ever filed bankruptcy (including personally or as part of any partnership, LLC, corporation, or other business organization)?

No

22. Have you ever been a party in any legal proceedings (including divorces, domestic proceedings, and other types of proceedings)? If so, give details including the date, court and docket number and disposition. Provide a brief description of the case. This question does not seek, and you may exclude from your response, any matter where you were involved only as a nominal party, such as if you were the trustee under a deed of trust in a foreclosure proceeding.

No

23. List all organizations other than professional associations to which you have belonged within the last five (5) years, including civic, charitable, religious, educational, social and fraternal organizations. Give the titles and dates of any offices which you have held in such organizations.

ACLU-TN, Board of Directors, Member
Treasurer	Sept. 2013-Present
Investment Committee	2012-Present
Nominating Committee	2013

(Because the ACLU, while non-partisan, is an issue advocacy group and frequently is involved in the pursuit of litigation, continued involvement would not be consistent with taking on a judicial role. If given the opportunity to serve as a Judge of the Circuit Court, I would resign from my position as Treasurer and resign from the Board of that organization.)

24. Have you ever belonged to any organization, association, club or society which limits its membership to those of any particular race, religion, or gender? Do not include in your answer those organizations specifically formed for a religious purpose, such as churches or synagogues.

- a. If so, list such organizations and describe the basis of the membership limitation.
- b. If it is not your intention to resign from such organization(s) and withdraw from any participation in their activities should you be nominated and selected for the position for which you are applying, state your reasons.

No

27. List any public office you have held or for which you have been candidate or applicant. Include the date, the position, and whether the position was elective or appointive.

I have never held public office. As to positions for which I have been a candidate or applicant, they were all identified in my response to Question 11 above.

ESSAYS/PERSONAL STATEMENTS

28. What are your reasons for seeking this position? (150 words or less)

I am very fortunate to have practiced law with some of the best law firms in Memphis during my legal career to date, but I believe I can make an important contribution to the bench, the bar, and our entire community by pursuing this position at this time.

Judge Childers has been an exceptional jurist and, although his retirement is well-deserved, this will be a great loss to the Circuit Court. I do not know if I would prove to be as good of a jurist as Judge Childers was, but I do believe that my background and reputation, combined with my recognition of the importance of demonstrating fairness to all lawyers and parties that come before the Court, make me well-positioned to be a successful judge if I am fortunate enough to be recommended by the Commission and appointed by Governor Haslam.

29. Describe the judgeship you seek (i.e. geographic area, types of cases, number of judges, etc. and explain how your selection would impact the court. (150 words or less))

There are nine Divisions of the Circuit Court for the 30th Judicial District. I seek the Division IX position that will become vacant upon Judge Childers' retirement. The Circuit Court hears exclusively civil proceedings but, like has been true with my own experience as an attorney, requires familiarity with, and facility for, a wide range of kinds of subject-matter law. According to statistics made available through the Circuit Court's own website, approximately 5,000 to 6,000 new cases are filed in Circuit Court each year. In addition to matters within its jurisdiction as a trial court, the Circuit has jurisdiction over appeals from certain lower courts of limited jurisdiction within Shelby County.

30. Will you uphold the law even if you disagree with the substance of the law (e.g., statute or rule) at issue? Give an example from your experience as a licensed attorney that supports your response to this question. (250 words or less)

Yes. Absolutely. If appointed, I intend to take very seriously all of the ethical mandates imposed on judges by Tenn. Sup. Ct. R. 10.

In terms of giving an example, this is a difficult question to answer without writing something that runs the risk of publicly disclosing a sentiment or disagreement that might be traced to a particular client, or particular representation. Over the years, I have represented many clients whose positions were ones that I disagreed with, but in order to provide them with zealous advocacy, I have pursued their positions to the best of my ability because that is the job of a lawyer when you take on a client. The job of a judge is to decide cases and apply the law.

I personally do not view the position of a state court trial judge as a political position. As a trial-court-level judge, I would consider my job to be to follow the law established by the General Assembly and consistent with controlling appellate precedent. I was a Republican earlier in my life (was even President of College Republicans at Rhodes College), but admittedly I am not one today. If fortunate enough to become a judge, I would not inject politics into how I do my job – not only because I don't believe state court trial judges should do so but also because I personally know and understand that political beliefs are subject to change.
