

Dear Court Clerk,

On April 28, 2003 while on death watch at Riverbend, at approximately 9:30 P.M. the 6th Circuit Court of Appeals, stayed my schedule execution, which, moments afterwards, attorney Mike Engle encouraged me to sign a document which dealt with appealing the Captain D's case 97-C-1834, however, I was not given the opportunity to read the document, nor actually fathom exactly what I signed. I erred, in signing the appeal document.

Therefore, I elect to withdraw the appeal document I signed in the Captain D's case 97-C-1834, and filed in the Twelfth Judicial District Court.

Respectfully,
Paul Reid
