Judicial Selection Committee
c/o Debra Hayes

RE: Connie Reguli

Dear Ms. Hayes and Committee,

I have diligently reviewed my case load while participating in this application process. Cases that I had hoped would come to a resolution by now, or that I could reasonably anticipate would be resolved within the next 60 days, are not in the posture that I had hoped.

I cannot abandon certain cases or put them in the hands of new counsel without severely prejudicing my client's positions. After twenty years in practice, I have continued in this profession because the judicial system is intended to serve the needs of the litigants, not the needs or desires of the attorneys.

Unfortunately this is just very bad timing for me to continue to pursue judicial appointment and I regretfully must withdraw my application.

I certainly appreciate the opportunity. I participated in this process in 2004 upon the retirement of Judge Harris and knew that I would seek this position again in the future. However, I run an active practice that has taken on a life of its own and the needs of my clients are more important than my desire to seek this judicial position.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Connie Reguli
