NO. 15-859-BC

Additionally, with an Answer filed to the Complaint and issues joined, and a temporary injunction in place, the Court shall conduct a Case Litigation Plan Conference ("CLPC") to draft with Counsel a plan to prepare this case for trial.

In particular, the Court at the CLPC shall identify with Counsel the pure issues of law, mixed issues of law and fact, and fact issues. From this identification Court and Counsel shall plan and schedule the following:

- prediscovery preliminary motions or with discovery narrowed to the motions
- timing of deadline to amend pleadings
- deadlines for written discovery, inspections, sampling, depositions (including a list of lay and expert witnesses)
- timing of summary judgment deadline

The Court shall also inquire of Defendants' counsel whether and how they intend to proceed with the assertion in paragraph 6 of their Answer that this matter is to be submitted to arbitration; and the assertions in the Answer that due to Defendant Baumann's 35% ownership in the Plaintiff LLC and other circumstances the Plaintiff is not authorized to file the lawsuit.

In the next week, Mrs. Smith, Docket Control Clerk, will contact Counsel regarding their availability for a one-hour CLPC on these dates and times:

November 16, 2015 at 9:00
November 17, 2015 at 9:00
November 24, 2015 at 1:30

It is so ORDERED.
