

1 what transpired as far as you know?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. What did you do with the notes after you got them
4 from Mr. Owens' office?

5 A. We took those notes back to our office where we
6 held them for some time. And Ms. Scott asked for them to be
7 returned after we had determined the other facts that we --
8 during the investigation and discussed it with someone -- I
9 don't even remember who now, whether it was a city attorney
10 or one of the state's attorneys. And they said it had no
11 bearing on it. They could be returned.

12 Q. Okay. You kind of jumped ahead of me, but let me
13 back up a little bit. Can you describe what was on those 14 notes?

15 A. They were juvenilistic love notes.

16 Q. Did they have pet names on there?

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. Names such as "Lollipop" --

19 A. Yes, sir.

20 Q. -- "Fluff" and "Fluff Licker"?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. Do you recall any other descriptions on there?

23 A. No, sir.

24 Q. Any drawings on them?

25 A. No, sir.

1 Q. Were those notes from Gala Scott and Dianne Wood?

2 A. Dianne -- if I remember correctly, the notes from
3 Dianne Wood were more of a friendship type. They weren't a
4 romantic. They were more like "Happy Birthday" type things.
5 Now, Gala Scott's were definitely romantic and...

6 Q. Were they explicitly sexual?

7 A. As vaguely as I can remember, there were some --
8 well, of course, the pet names in itself were indicative of 9 that.

10 Q. And you said that Ms. Scott called you to ask if
11 she could have the cards back. Do you recall who you checked
12 with?

13 A. No, sir.

14 Q. Do you remember speaking with Libby Moore from 15 our office on February 3rd, 1997?

16 A. Yes, sir.

17 Q. Do you recall the answer to that question, you
18 said that you had called General Strother?

19 A. To the best of my memory it was General Strother.
20 It may have been a city prosecutor, George McCrary. Or it
21 could have been Mr. Challen, I believe was involved in the --
22 I'm sorry. I just don't remember who it was.

23 Q. General Strother and General Challen were 24 handling the cases for the State, weren't they?

25 A. The best I remember, yes, sir.
