TERMS OF AGREEMENT
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The Attorney agrees, warrants, and assures that no person shall be excluded from participation in, be denied benefits of, or be otherwise subjected to discrimination in the performance of the authorized service or in the employment practices of the Attorney on the grounds of disability, age, race, color, religion, sex, national origin, or any other classification protected by constitutional or statutory law.</li> <li>2. The Attorney warrants that no amount shall be paid directly or indirectly to an employee or official of the State as wages, compensation, or gifts in exchange for acting as an officer, agent, employee, subcontractor, or consultant to the Attorney in connection with any work contemplated or performed relative to this Agreement.</li> <li>3. Either party may terminate this agreement for any reason. Termination by the State shall not be deemed a breach of contract by the State. Termination by the Attorney will preclude Attorney from representing indigent persons facing contempt of court charges for failure to pay court-ordered child support in Title IV-D child support enforcement proceedings in the jurisdiction.</li> <li>4. The Attorney agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the State as well as its officers, agents, and employees from and against any and all claims, liabilities, losses, and causes of action which may arise, accrue, or result to any person, firm, corporation, or other entity which may be injured or damaged as a result of acts, omissions, or negligence on the part of the Attorney, his or her employees, or any person acting for or on its or their behalf relating to this purchase.</li> <li>5. The Attorney agrees to provide competent, zealous representation to his or her clients as required by the Tennessee Rules of Professional Conduct. The Attorney providing services pursuant to this contract shall maintain caseloads that allow for the delivery of quality of representation at all times. Notwithstanding the unit price per case. If a case is deemed complex or extended, an amount in excess of the unit price per case, subject to a maximum of $300 per case, may be sought by filing a motion in the court in which representation is provided. The motion shall include specific factual allegations demonstrating that the case is complex or extended. The court shall enter an order which evidences the action taken on the motion.</li> <li>6. The State is not responsible for the payment of services rendered without specific, written authorization.</li> <li>7. The Attorney will submit an invoice in form and substance acceptable to the State to effect payment.</li> <li>8. The Attorney will not be compensated for travel, meals, lodging or any other out of pocket expenses.</li> <li>9. The payment of the invoice by the State shall not prejudice the State's right to object to or question any invoice or matter in relation thereto. The Attorney's invoice shall be subject to reduction for amounts which are determined not to constitute proper remuneration for compensable services. The State reserves the right to deduct from amounts which are or shall become due and payable to the Attorney any amounts which are or shall become due and payable to the State by the Attorney.</li> </ol>
