MOTION FOR STATUS CONFERENCE

Comes the Petitioner, Robert Glen Coe, and respectfully moves this Court to hold a status conference in this matter. In support of this motion, Petitioner states:

1. By order dated December 8, 1996, this Court granted habeas corpus relief. The Sixth Circuit has since reversed that order and certioran has been denied. A mandate has since issued.

2. An appellate court mandate "is directed to the district court, which upon receipt can take whatever further proceedings are appropriate or necessary in light of the mandate." Wright, Miller & Cooper, Federal Practice And Procedure, Juni5diction 3d §3987.

3. It is Petitioner's position that this Court must still resolve constitutional issues presented by Petitioner but not yet addressed on the merits by this Court or the Sixth Circuit in earlier proceedings. Further, issues which may now be ripe for resolution may need to be addressed by the Court as well.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, this Court should grant a status conference.

Respectfully Submitted,

James H. Walker 601 Woodiand Street Nashville, Tennessee 37206 (615) 254-0202
