IN RE: RULE 7, RULES OF THE TENNESSEE SUPREME COURT

No. M2019-00152-SC-BAR-BLE

ORDER

The Board of Law Examiners (the “Board”) has filed a motion asking for permission to “reopen applications for the February 2019 bar examination for the limited purpose of allowing examination applicants to the bar of the District of Columbia (the ‘DC Bar’) to apply for examination and admission to the bar of Tennessee.” The Board asserts that “applicants to the DC Bar may not be able to sit for a bar examination as the staff of the DC Bar are furloughed and the exam is at risk of being canceled,” and that there are “seventy (70) vacant seats that could be used by DC Bar applicants” who wish to seek admission to the Tennessee bar by taking the February 2019 bar examination in Nashville.

After due consideration, it is ORDERED that the motion is granted. All applicants must comply with the provisions and deadlines stated in the Board’s motion and all other applicable requirements contained in Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 7.
