Re: Tennessee Drug Task Forces

Dear Mr. Durham:

By Ch. 974 Tennessee Public Acts (2018) the legislature created a Task Force to study, hold hearings, and recommend a plan for statewide judicial redistricting. On behalf of the Task Force, I would like to invite your comments and participation in this process. The Administrative Office of the Courts has a link for the Task Force on their website:

<http://tncourts.gov/Advisory%20Task%20Force%20on%20Composition%20of%20Judicial%20Districts>. You may consult the site for a listing of the Task Force members, its meetings and public hearings, as well as other information regarding redistricting. You may also use the above link to submit your comments to the Task Force. Additionally, you may register to speak, and to submit items for the Task Force to consider at its public hearings by using the following link:
<http://tncourts.gov/node/5336509>.

Finally, if you have any questions, you may contact the A.O.C. or any member of the Task Force. Again, we will welcome any thoughts, ideas, or comments you may have.

Sincerely,
