Case No. M2003-01767-COA-R3-CV
Capital Case
 (Davidson County Chancery)

MOTION FOR ENLARGEMENT OF TIME
TO FILE APPELLANT'S REPLY BRIEF

The undersigned counsel for Appellant, Abu-Ali Abdur'Rahman, hereby moves the Court for an enlargement of time within which to file Appellant's Reply Brief in this Appeal. Appellant just received Appellees' Brief, and Appellant's Reply Brief is currently due December 4, 2003. Appellant is requesting a fifteen (15) day extension of time to file his Reply Brief through and including December 19, 2003.

The undersigned counsel has discussed this with counsel for the Appellees, and the Appellees consent to this requested enlargement of time.

The reasons for this request include the following:

1. Appellant's counsel have a number of professional commitments that require their full time and attention over the next several weeks. Among other things, Appellant's counsel are scheduled to argue a case involving Appellant before the Sixth Circuit en banc Court on December 3, 2003. Appellant's counsel have other court hearings and professional commitments that will take them out of their offices that are scheduled for times during the first two weeks of December.

2. The requested fifteen (15) day enlargement of time for Appellant to file his Reply Brief will not cause any delay in the adjudication of this appeal.

3. As indicated above, the Appellees have no objection to Appellant's requested enlargement of time and have communicated their consent to this request.

For these reasons, cause exists for an enlargement of time for the filing of Appellant's Brief, through and including December 19, 2003.

Respectfully Submitted,

Bradley A. MacLean (BPR # 9562)
