STATE OF TENNESSEE v. COURTNEY BISHOP

Criminal Court for Shelby County
No. 08-07886

No. W2010-01207-SC-R11-CD - Filed: August 15, 2012

ORDER

Upon consideration of the application for permission to appeal of the State of Tennessee and the record before us, the application is granted. In accordance with Tennessee Rule of Appellate Procedure 24(e), the trial court clerk is ordered to supplement the appellate record with the exhibits introduced at the suppression hearing held on October 9, 2009. The supplemental record shall be filed no later than August 31, 2012. The Appellate Court Clerk is directed to place this matter on the docket for oral argument upon the completion of briefing.

In addition to the issues raised in the State's application, the Court is particularly interested in briefing and oral argument of the following questions:

1. Whether the corpus delicti rule should be abrogated in light of modern criminal procedure protections. See, e.g. State v. Mauchley, 67 P.3d 477, 485-87 (Utah 2003) (discussing modern criminal procedure protections and the necessity of the rule).
2. Assuming the corpus delicti rule is retained, should the sufficiency of the corroborating evidence be evaluated by 1) the trustworthiness standard, requiring corroboration of the confession, see Mauchley, 67 P.3d at 488; 2) the traditional standard, requiring slight evidence, independent of the confession, of the corpus delicti; or 3) both? See Thomas A. Mullen, Rule Without Reason: Requiring Independent Proof of the Corpus Delicti as a Condition of Admitting an Extrajudicial Confession, 27 U.S.F. L. Rev. 385, 413 & n. 131 (1993) (collecting cases).
3. Assuming the corpus delicti rule is retained, does it apply to in-court statements, or is it limited to extrajudicial statements? See Mullen, Rule Without Reason, 27 U.S.F. L. Rev. at 408 (noting that the corpus delicti rule does not apply to infrajudicial statements).
