Frequently Asked Questions About the Local Rules of Practice

1. Why did I not get a notice of the docket setting date? Answer. Cases are set on a docket setting day whether or not the attorneys are present. It is incumbent upon the attorneys to determine the date of the docket setting for their case. The circuit judges make available through the clerks' offices a schedule of Court Chambers and Docket Setting Dates. Attorneys should refer to that schedule and attend docket settings. The docket setting dates for each county should be available through the Putnam County Circuit Court Clerk's website which is www.putnamcountyttn.gov.
2. How is a case set for trial? See Local Rules of Practice for the Circuit Court of the Thirteenth Judicial District (L.R.P.) L.R.P. 17.01. Answer. First, determine which judge has been assigned to your case. The docket in any one of the seven (7) counties in the Thirteenth Judicial District should indicate which judge will hear a case. The clerk's office can help you with this information. Second, attend or send a representative to the docket setting in the county in which your case is filed.
3. What is the most frequent reason that the judge will not sign my order? Answer. Because the order does not comply with the Tennessee Rules of Civil Procedure Rule 58. It says in pertinent part that an order of final disposition is only effective when it contains one of the following:
 - (1) the signatures of the judge and all parties or counsel; or
 - (2) the signatures of the judge and one party or counsel with a certificate of service that a copy of the proposed order has been served on all other parties or counsel;
4. How do I get a trial continued or moved to another date? Do I have to file a motion? Can we submit an agreed order? Can we do it by conference call with the judge? Answer. L.R.P. 17.04 [a] Cases can be continued only by leave of court. They are not to be continued by agreement. Agreed orders are not accepted. A motion to continue is appropriate.
5. Can trial dates be continued so the parties can participate in a judicial settlement conference? What happens if the trial date is just a few weeks away and there are no settlement conference dates available? Answer. Judicial settlement conferences must be scheduled early enough so they will not affect the trial date. (See Question 6 for information regarding scheduling.)
6. How are judicial settlement conferences scheduled? What do I do if opposing counsel won't agree to a settlement conference or won't cooperate in picking a date? Answer. Get a date from the judge who will be holding the judicial settlement conference and get an "Order Establishing Judicial Settlement Conference" signed by the judge to whom the case has been assigned. Supreme Court Rule 31 provides for obtaining a settlement conference. All attorneys should cooperate. If an attorney is uncooperative a conference call with the judge to whom the case is assigned would be appropriate.

7. How are motions scheduled? Does the clerk schedule them? Does the clerk forward a hard copy of the motion to the judge? If I send a copy of the Notice of Hearing to the judge's office, do I also have to call the judge's office to get it on the docket? Do I have to send a copy of the motion to the judge? Answer. The judicial assistant in the judge's office schedules all motions. Motion dates are listed on the schedule of Court Chambers and Docket Setting Dates (see FAQ #1). None of the seven clerks are required to forward the motion to the judge. Therefore, the attorney must forward by mail, email, or fax a copy of the motion and pertinent authority to the judge at least two days prior to the date of hearing.
8. Do I have to bring the court file for motion hearings? Answer. The judge will need the court file to rule on any motion set for a hearing the moving party's attorney must check out and bring the court file with them to the hearing. That attorney is also responsible for returning the file to the clerk in a timely manner.
9. Can Motions in Limine be heard on the day of the trial? Answer. Routine motions must be scheduled on a motion date prior to the day of trial. The courts will not delay commencement of the trial on the date of the trial because attorneys have not scheduled motions prior to the trial date.
10. Can pre-trial briefs and expert depositions be submitted to the judge via facsimile or email? Answer. Yes, as long as each document is legible. Please obtain prior approval from the judge's office if a document is more than ten (10) pages.
11. Are condensed copies of depositions acceptable? Answer. Yes. However, they should not be sent via fax machine. If an emergency arises and they are sent by fax, the sender is obligated to determine if the fax copy is legible.
12. Where do I send orders that need to be signed by the judge? Do I send them to the clerk or to the judge's office? Answer. L.R.P. 22.01 [e]. After an order is circulated and has the signature of all attorneys or pro se litigants, the order should be sent directly to the judge's office. Do not send them to the clerk's office. All orders mailed to the judge's office for signature shall be accompanied by an envelope properly addressed to the clerk of the county in which the action is filed with sufficient postage affixed thereto to carry it to its destination.
13. Under the five-day rule, are orders "lodged" in the clerk's office or in the judge's office? Answer. L.R.P. 22.01 [c]. The order must be lodged in the judge's office. Note, this is different than Chancery Court Rules.
14. What if I want to use audio/visual equipment during a trial? Answer. L.R.P. 11. Twenty-one (21) days notice to all adverse counsel is required. You must set a time with the Clerk in advance of trial to test equipment. Trials will not be continued due to technological disfunction

8.03 Discovery Completion Deadline

Upon motion of a party or upon its own motion, the court may order that discovery be completed by a certain date.

another state, counsel shall attach to the memorandum a complete copy of the opinion; counsel also shall furnish a copy of any unreported decision to opposing counsel.

10.02 Response to Motions

If a motion is opposed, a response to the motion must be filed and, unless excused by the court, served on opposing counsel and the Court by noon the day before the scheduled hearing, together with any affidavits or supporting memorandum of law that will be presented at the hearing. Items not available to counsel by the deadline may be considered in the discretion of the court. The response shall be made in writing and shall state with particularity the grounds for opposition to the motion. If no response is filed, the court may dispose of the motion as unopposed.

The foregoing requirements shall not apply to T.R.C.P. Rule 56 or Rule 65 motions which are governed by those rules, nor shall it apply to a reply. No sur-reply or other document past a reply shall be filed on any motion without leave of Court.

10.03 Briefs of Motions and Responses

Responsive memoranda are required and shall be submitted and furnished to court and opposing counsel in accordance with Rule 10.02. If no responsive brief is filed, the court may dispose of the motion as unopposed.

10.04 Time for Hearings

Motions will be heard by agreement by order of the court, or on notice on any chamber's day, or by consent of court on any regular day of a session in the county in which the motion is pending, or at such other times and places as may be designated by the court.

[a] Motions and cross-motions that are unilaterally scheduled will normally not be heard by the court, unless the Motion contains a signed certificate of good faith that the moving counsel has attempted to jointly schedule the hearing and opposing counsel has not responded or will not agree to reasonably available date.

10.05 Places of Chambers/Motion Days

Chambers shall be held on dates as designated on each judge's calendar. A copy of the judge's calendar can be requested from the judicial assistant or the clerk.

Notice of Hearing: Any party docketing a motion for hearing shall serve written notice of the date and time of the hearing upon all other parties, pursuant to L.R.P 10.01.

10.06 Striking or Postponement of Motions

After a motion has been docketed, no party may strike or postpone a motion without the agreement of all parties. In the absence of an agreement, the court may order postponement of a motion hearing. If a motion is to be stricken or postponed by agreement, counsel shall notify the clerk or judge's judicial assistant as soon as practical. If any party strikes or postpones a motion without agreement of all parties of record, or without leave of court, the court may tax as costs reasonable fees and expenses in favor of any party who appeared at the scheduled hearing.

10.07 Failure to Appear at a Motion Hearing; Late Appearance

If any party does not appear at a scheduled hearing on a motion or any other matter scheduled to be heard on the motion docket, the court may strike or adjudicate the motion. Counsel who will be late for a motion hearing shall notify the judge's judicial assistant in advance of the hearing or have an announcement to that effect made at the call of the motion docket.

10.08 Motion for New Trial - Hearings

[a] Motions for a new trial and/or modification of an order/judgment shall be docketed by the movant for hearing within thirty (30) days of the date of filing of the motion.

[b] The failure to docket a hearing within thirty (30) days shall be considered a waiver of the motion and an order adjudicating the motion may be entered by the court.

RULE 11: USE OF AUDIO/VISUAL RECORDINGS

When a party intends to offer an audio and/or visual recording as evidence in any jury trial, counsel shall provide written notice to all adverse counsel at least twenty-one (21) days before trial. Adverse counsel shall be permitted to review the recording in the form in which it is intended to be offered at trial. Additionally, counsel, at his/her expense, shall be allowed to copy said recording. Adverse counsel shall promptly advise the other attorney of each objection to the recording. The attorneys shall then attempt in good faith to resolve such matters among themselves. If the attorneys cannot resolve the objections, then they shall advise the trial court sufficiently before trial in order that said objections may be ruled upon in time to allow editing of the recording. Attorneys must meet with the Clerk prior to the day of trial or hearing to test any technology equipment necessary.

RULE 12: CASES HEARD BY INTERCHANGE

13.02 Court Approval of Settlement

All joint petitions for the approval of workers' compensation, legitimation and minor's claims must be filed with the clerk before being presented to a judge. In the event a minor or incompetent person is not represented by counsel, the Court may require that a Guardian ad Litem be appointed for the person if the court is not satisfied with the proposed settlement, and in that event, the fee of said Guardian ad Litem will be taxed as part of the costs.

13.03 Notice Immediately Upon Settlement

If a case is set for trial and the parties subsequently reach a settlement, the parties shall give immediate notice of the settlement to the clerk and judge and shall promptly file an agreed order. Strict adherence to this requirement will allow the court to better plan for the trial of other pending cases.

RULE 14: LEAVES FOR 30 CALENDAR DAYS OR LESS

On sixty (60) days' notice, or less if approved by the Court, any attorney with matters in this district may file a "Notice of Leave of Absence" with the Clerk of court in counties where that attorney has pending matters, with copies to the Court's chambers. The Leave of Absence may be for up to thirty (30) consecutive days, although more may be approved by the Court for good cause shown. During the specified Leave of Absence, no attorney practicing before this Court shall knowingly notice said attorney to hearings, depositions or other matters. Such notice shall be deemed stricken without the need for filing any motion to quash or other matter. Absent leave of court, attorneys are limited to filing one such leave of absence per year.

RULE 15: COURT REPORTERS

All Termination of Parental Rights cases must have a court reporter.

RULE 16: GENERAL SESSIONS APPEALS

[a] It shall be the duty of the Appellant and/or their attorneys to notify opposing parties or counsel at the time a General Sessions court case has been appealed to Circuit Court. 17.02 Certifying Cases Ready When Set

When a case is set for trial, all counsel are certifying they are available for trial and that the case will be in all respects ready for trial on the trial date.

17.03 Deadline for Trial Preparation

When a party objects to having a case set because trial preparation is not complete, the court may establish a deadline for completing trial preparation. Both sides shall voluntarily enter into a binding scheduling order or ask the court to do so within 15 days of the date setting the case for trial.

17.04 Continuances

- [a] Cases may not be continued by agreement and may be continued only by leave of court.

Cases will not be continued except for good cause which shall be brought to the attention of the court as soon as practicable before the date of the trial.

[b] Absence of a witness will not be considered by the court as a ground for a continuance unless the witness has been subpoenaed in accordance with the requirements of these rules and T.R.C.P.

[c] When a case has been set, failure to have completed discovery, inability to take a deposition, or failure to have completed any other trial preparation will not be grounds for a continuance. The court should be timely notified of problems in scheduling depositions or other preparation (such as refusal of a deponent to promptly schedule a deposition) and the court may take such action to ensure that depositions are given in a timely fashion so as to ensure that parties are ready for trial on the scheduled trial date.

[d] A case may not be continued or delayed more than once and not exceeding sixty (60) days to assure the compliance of installment or partial payment agreement of parties.

17.05 Award of Fees and Expenses

If a case is continued, the Court may award expenses and attorney fees, including compensation to witnesses for lost income and/or travel expenses and tax the same as court costs.

17.06 Motion to Continue Jury Trials

[a] All motions to continue a jury trial shall specify the trial date.

[b] All motions to continue a jury trial shall be heard by the judge to whom the case is assigned.

[a] All subpoenas for witnesses, except for subpoenas issued in “blank” shall be issued and signed by the clerk in triplicate. One copy shall be designated “service copy” and it is to be left with the witness. One copy shall be designated “file copy” and retained in the court file. The original shall be the return copy.

[b] Subpoenas issued in blank shall be signed by the clerk, shall be completed by the party requesting it, and three (3) copies shall be filed with the clerk within the time frame set out in Rule 18.03[a] [b].

[b] Jury cases: Subpoenas for a local witness must be issued and dated by the clerk no later than seven (7) days before the trial and ten (10) days for out of county. If an attorney is aware that any witness such as an expert witness requires more notice than set out above to ensure that a prior served subpoena will not take precedence, a subpoena must be issued within five (5) days of the date of first notice of the setting of the case.

18.04 Responsibility of Counsel

Counsel of record shall be responsible for ensuring the subpoenas are issued in accordance with this rule and the applicable rules of Civil and Criminal Procedure. Nothing in Rule 18 prohibits counsel from preparing subpoenas. The clerk may not refuse to issue a subpoena requested by counsel at any time.

RULE 19: PRE-TRIAL PROCEDURE

[a] To exchange names of witnesses, other than impeachment or rebuttal witnesses.

[b] To make available for viewing and to discuss proposed exhibits, other than impeachment or rebuttal exhibits. In the event that the parties hold a telephone conference rather than a face-to-face meeting, the exhibits shall be made available for viewing before the conference.

[c] Trial proceedings will not be delayed to allow counsel to view or copy exhibits.

[d] Trial exhibits shall, when possible, be marked and numbered prior to the taking of the witness stand by the witness the exhibit[s] is expected to be introduced through.
